THE OFFICIAL MAGAZINE OF
TRACKROD MOTOR CLUB LTD.
NO. 169 JANUARY 1985

EDITORIAL

As you may have noticed the new covers have not arrived yet, the printers have been very busy but I still hope they will be here by next month.

Well, it's January, it's a new year, and it's time for your membership renewal. Included in the mag on page 10 is a membership renewal slip.

Once again it's congratulations to Becky for organising a very successful Christmas Party. Also a big well done to the participants in the party games, I think the rest of us enjoyed the fun.

Sorry this isn't a full mag. but there is a shortage of articles at the moment plus a very hectic Christmas with a new (unexpected) arrival in the Munnis Household. Just a word to say our Far East correspondent Stuart Mars is hoping to be back on a visit around Easter.

YOUR PLANS FOR 85

Just before Christmas I did a quick survey of some members plans for 1985.

The Shell League will see the trio of Ken Goodall, John Bean and Bob Stoker as regular competitors, whilst our Shell League captain John Renny will be out on the Three Swans.

This year sees the splitting up of the Miller Bros. with Martyn moving over to navigate for Bob Stoker on the 3 Swans. Chris however has gone into semi-retirement at the height of his career - so he says - 2nd in the ANCC 1300 Championship.

Tony Hanson and Russell Holdsworth have hopes to compete in the National Breakdown National rally, and a stage championship.

Already busy is our membership sec. Neil Du Cros who is presently competing in the Northern Univ. Champ'ship, the aforementioned 3 Swans being the next round.

The dynamic Dixon duo, Ian and David are rumoured to be acquiring a second hand Audi Quattro Sport for the ANCC 1300 series; but will be entering the Willi Wonka Champ'ship in a suitable car.

1985 also heralds the return to competition of a number of members. Martin Kemp has no intentions that I can print, but could be out on the Tour of Mull. Gez Waters and Roger Jackson plan to tackle the Anco-road rally series; with Gez concentrating on the 1300 class: both will be carrying sponsorship from Stable Garage at Moortown, Leeds.

Sorry to any members who I did not ask, but if they let me know there plans I'll try to mention them in a later mag.

We shall be running a stage during the weekend of 23/24 Feb. If you wish to marshal and/or become involved in the timekeeping, radio, etc, please let Rod Parkin as Stage Commander or Phil Sykes as D.S.C. know as soon as possible.
