EDITOR

Hope all our members had an enjoyable Christmas and New Year.

The New Year always gives new hopes for a successful year, "this year will be the year", navigators will not get WD's, drivers will not come off the road, autotest drivers will collect no cones, PCT drivers will climb every mountain and marshals will always be warm.

What ever you wish yourself I hope it comes true.

On a personal note, my partnership with John Cope is temporarily suspended while John contests the Motoring News Championship next year - other commitments mean I can not promise a full year at this level but I'm sure all the friends John has made in Trackrod wish him and Shaun Argent well next year.

Anyone want a slightly used often abused navigator? Mr Angry has had so much beer over Christmas he has not been angry enough or sober enough to pick his pen up. So he will back next next month.

See you at the Three Swans or at the Dinner Dance, or preferably both.

CHAIRMAN'S CHAT

Today has been great, cos I've just arrived back after the Boxing Day Autotest, I've had a shower and washed the mud out of my hair. For those of you who decided against attending this annual motoring extravaganza including the organising team!! You missed a truly fabulous event. If for no other reason you missed out on the long awaited debut of the Mackinnon Special, which after lying around in Wetherby since May last year was dragged out by no lesser person than John Renny who wished to use it for the tests. Thanks John cos it may still have been there next Boxing Day. John and his brother-in-law set about making the beast run and fixing the hand-brake and after a minor set back on the day (only running on 2½ cylinders) the machine was repaired and both John and myself enjoyed the experience!! Some minor adjustments have to be made, but it is hoped that both John and myself shall be using said vehicle during 1987 on various events.

Anyway, thanks to Peter Stanhope for helping with the event and bringing the caravan down, John Richardson Richard Simpson and friend for marshalling experience and for all the competitors who turned up and had a super time. (Thanks Rod for being Steward).

Now onto other events - December saw the fancy dress party of which only 30 members and friends turned up. I think a poor turn out, especially after the success of the Bonfire Disco. Whats wrong with you lot, I and our social club sec. can't understand what you the members really want. Have you no imagination? Or is it you just can't be bothered - too much trouble? I do hope I don't hear anyone complaining that Trackrod don't put on any social events next year when Becky says she doesn't want to organise them due to lack of members support.

No this is not the Mr Angry column, so I'll say no more. Future events, the main 2 are the TMC Dinner Dance and Prize Presentation at the Mercury, Garforth. Tickets available from any committee member. Get yours now, as we only have available 120 - this is the social event of the year, and as no doubt you know we have a guest speaker this year, whom I believe tells of some very very good and funny rallying experiences. Secondly the first round of the 1987 Shell Sport League Championship, Selbys 3 Swans Rally. (I still need a team so anyone who wishes to enter I've still got some regs left.) By the way, no doubt you will have read in John Rennys Shell League article, that I am now the clubs Shell League Representative for 1987, and this year we are going to do better than 4th C/A aren't we ?? Good, but I need your support. Right thats it for now - drive safely and be careful out there.

JUST ANOTHER BORING SUNDAY.

What do you do on the average Sunday?

Wash the car?

Have a few drinks?

Eat a three or four course lunch?

Watch TV?

Entertain a few friends?

Quite a usual sort of day, except when it all happens in the middle of a field at Harewood House, and then somebody runs a World Championship Rally in front of you.

It all started for me when someone asked the usual leading question - "Stuart, are you doing anything special?". Some day I'll learn how to answer that question properly!

So there I was doing the Flying Finish on the Harewood House stage of this years RAC Rally, with a certain degree of style and luxury (well when did you have mains water and electricity, colour TV etc, etc. during a rally.)

But as with anything else theres an awful lot more behind the scenes activity than seems apparent at first sight. Now while I can accept that one of the major rounds of the World Rally Championship needs a lot of organisation, the RAC really does seem to go over the top. In fact it wouldn't surprise me to learn that the RAC Rally is in fact organised by a Firm of Management Consultants. The paperwork is phenomonal - theres more Manuals than the Barcelona Telephone Directory! The one saving grace was that holes had already been punched in one corner (makes it so much easier to hang on the nail near the chain.) At least in my minor role the paperwork and meetings were minimal, the senior officials have far more work.

However, enough of the griping (and the gripping), let's get on with what it's all about - rallying. The Saturday morning before the event saw me and my appo, Steve Hitchcock, helping to set the stage up with a few other of the Club Stalwarts. If you weren't there you obviously weren't one of the Stalwarts - just plain old wart. Even Ronnie Mack managed to drag himself out, and if somebody who looked that bad would turn-up there's no excuse for you (he really did look awful - and that was after what he called the kiss of life.)

The stage itself was typical stately home stuff, with a mixture of good quality tar, well founded gravel, and very slippery woodland tracks. The worst of the woodland section had been regraded especially for the Rally, but even before the event it was still very muddy, and effing slippery. Even on Mickey Mouse stages like these, the Group B supercars must be a real handful, tyre choice would have been a real problem for the front runners (if anybody had bothered to ask me I could have warned them off Michelin MXV'S - as much use as a chocolate fireguard!).

Apart from all the usual day glo signs, day glo arrows, day glo tape, day glo etc., etc., etc., this years RAC Rally saw the introduction of two great new ideas for rallies:-

Day glo Orange, wind driven, rotating, reflective tops for Traffic cones, and Day glo black tractor tyres.

While all the same people were watching Rally sprints on the gogglebox the Wild Wallies were autotesting Tractor Tyres in front of a Palladian Mansion, the winner being awarded a lukewarm fishcake and a mouthful of Tizer - all heady stuff. The setting up was completed by three o'clock, which as you know is just when the pubs shut, probably a plot by the assembled wives who were present. I'd fully expected Sunday to be a bit of a drag, since we had to be on the stage at ten in the morning, with the cars not due until seven in the evening, ten hours with nothing to do except to watch the mud get more and more sticky. But for once we had the luxury of mains power, a portable colour TV and coupled with fine weather (and a bottle of Jameson Irish Whiskey), the day went very smoothly. Indeed a succession of visitors were most impressed by our standard of comfort. Its amazing how a bottle of booze attracts the freeloaders - not that I'm going to list any names (John, Malcolm, Uncle Tom Cobley and all).

All very pleasant, until four o'clock, when somebody dumped two grands worth of timing equipment on our laps, such a pity all four clocks read different times. Still the chief timekeeper soon put things right, all four clocks reading the exact same time.

And of course there was always Radio S M U T, broadcasting on 75 Gughertz to the people of greater Harewood. The double-entendres, and general filth reached the lowest of lows when a film with two lady mud-wrestlers was being shown on TV, if Ronnie Mack and me had been doing the commentary the triangle symbol would have blushed... even I blushed at some of the comments.

Still the clocks were soon reset, and then a few practise timing, including a "Courtesy Car" that didn't even smile let alone stop, and we were away.

The actual Rally itself went off without great drama, in fact it seemed more an annoyance than anything else. The fastest car through was the Lancia Delta of Mibael Erikson - complete with flames shooting from the exhaust. His was the only car to belch fire - and he was fastest - draw your own conclusions, but has "screwdriver tuning" arrived in Rallying.

One last word on the course closing car. It was a local estate employee driving his land rover the wrong way into the stage - despite protests from all and sundry. Stupid prat!

STUART MARSH.

The month of November started on a high with the Larkspeed Road Rally, a nice clear night and a lot of good Trackrod crews all the way down the entry list we seemed to be assured of a good nights sport and as it turned out we were not to be disappointed.

After signing on we sloped off to our first control, near Boroughbridge. As this was an early competitive start, it was pretty uneventful, apart from another find display of how to leave a start line by Alan Powell! Our second control looked a little more interesting with a finish at the end of a long straight Moorland road (92-106014). After quite a long wait we were treated to the spectacle of Steve Retchless in full flight down this hairy yumpy road, only to be surpassed 5 minutes later by our own John Cope and John McNichol going even faster! A few more fast crews arrived and then 'it' happened.-

Car No 15 a 205GTI crewed by the Mcpherson Bros. from Beverley MC, bounced off the top of the yump, 100yds before our control and promptly demolished 20 feet of solid wall on the L/H side of the road, part of the wall on the R/H side of the road, finally coming to rest across the road with engine and gearbox torn out of the front end.

Fortunately both crew members were uninjured but it just proved the speed at which an accident can happen even on a dead straight road, albeit flat in fifth and trying hard.

Our next event, the RAC Rally was another success for Trackrod with another well run stage at Harewood. Rod Parkin and Ronnie Moore again proving that we have an organising team second to none. There were enough club members doing important jobs about the stage without any further elaboration from me but I would like to give my thanks to the marshalls on my section, Junction 9, who all did a fantastic and diplomatic job with the Bramall V.I.P.'s and the hordes of spectators who broke through from the spectator areas.

On the following Monday I went and gave Alwoody a hand up at Stang which was a good opportunity to see the fantastic Group B cars in action for the last time.

For the last trip out in November, I then arranged to do 2 controls on the Hall trophy but unfortunately before the event 'my team' pulled out and so I went on my own. Anyone with a navigator would have problems in Clithore but on your own ...!

It was a good job I saw Niel DuCros and Barry Dove, so they could tell me where I was. Anyway after signing on, it was off to my first control as the first competitive start on the fearsome Guisburn forest selective. Unfortunately, there was a lot of Police presence which caused a delay until common sense prevailed and they off and left me to it.

It was interesting to see two of our top ANCC contenders out but this time not together but with different partners, namely John McMichol in the Astra GTE of Andy Hawksworth at No. 10 and John Cope with Tony Holdsworth at No. 11 but unfortunately the prospects of an exciting tussle did not materialise as John and Andy dropped out early on.

After the last car had gone, I had an exciting trip along the selective to my next control, a bland affair only livened up when I was told I didn't know what I was doing by one of our members (I still don't know if he meant it or not.)

For anyone wanting a change these Lancashire events are certainly worth having a go at as the fast moorland roads certainly rival anything used more often by Yorkshire clubs. It's a pity that sometimes the organising is lacking as some of the police enforced 'bye laws' over these, are not always passed on to competitors whilst they are told to the marshalls who then have problems enforcing them.

As a bye the bye, spare a thought for Jan North and Derek Lee who trailed out to the start as 1st Semi reserve and did not get run. Hard luck lads but nice to see you anyway.

If you have managed to stay awake this far (my last article has been marketed as a cure for insomnia.) and if no-one stops me I will report on the December outings at a later date.

LARKSPEED TROPHY RALLY

The 1st/2nd of November saw a full entry gathered at Leeming Bar Motel for Alwoodley Motor Clubs annual rally. Being a round of the ANCC, TMSG, HMSG and also Shell League it attracted all the top local crews, Trackrod crews were also out in force this being the last round to collect Shell League points.

Lookout winner Mike Thornton unable to be a member of the Shell League team having a York MC map man. Crews recieved the 150 mile route with a 1½ hour plot time, and with nearly 50 main controls and black spots it left many of the novices hard pressed. Competitive motoring started after a short run down the A1 with a short selective from Kirklington to Middleton Quernhow. The in form No 1 seeds Retchless/Richardson recorded their first of many fastest times on 0.51secs with Kennal/Jarvis 0.58secs and our own two Johns (sounds like His/Hers loos!) on 1.03secs. The route then went on to map 100 via Thornton Manor, Hutton Sessay and Burtree House were Retchless/Richardson again collected two more fastest times. Selective 4 ran from Carlton Musthwaite to Coxwold where the two Johns collected fastest time on 0.36secs with Retchless/Richardson on 0.46secs, this being the last time they would be threatened for the lead. Cars then headed North East via Byland Abbey, Wass Moor, Oswaldkirk, Nunnington, Nawton and Cockayne Loop East-West (same as the Costa) where Retchless/Richardson showed how hard they were going to be to beat, being more than a minute quicker than their nearest challengers. Trackrods other crews were having mixed fortunes by this time. Alan/Ron after a good run of results saw the sequence end with a blown engine, Tom/Vince were struggling with handling and braking problems resulting in several 'moments',

Thompson/Ryan didn't make the finish either (reasons not known) and Thornton/Thorley were struggling to get on the pace. On the bright side the Johns were well in with the leaders and both Neil/Barry, Mark Tierney/M. Law were having trouble free runs lying well in their classes. Crews then headed back to Leeming Bar, using the yellows from Thirsk to Northallerton, where there was just time to take on petrol, hand in your time card and back into battle, heading out to Richmond via the fast roads at Bellerby Ranges. Four selectives round the pace note country of Feldon Ranges and Redmire saw Retchless/Richardson put the result of the event beyond doubt, with Cope/McNichol well in second place, by this time Tom/Vince still dogged by poor handling decided to back off after negotiating a downhill 45 degree Right backwards (enough moments for one night). A string of six Targa sections over Cocked Hat and Well took crews to a much earned breakfast and results at Leeming Bar. As expected Retchless/Richardson had a comfortable win with J. Cope/J. McNichol nearly 2 minutes in front of 3rd placed Gallagher/Gallagher. Mark Tierney/M. Law had a good run into 23rd O/All and 4th Semi Expert award, Neil and Barry 33rd O/All 8th in class plus the Tow Star Trophy. Mike Thornton not looking over enthusiastic at the finish still finished 17th O/All 10th in class and picked up the Tate of Leeds shield, and Tom/Vince won the Plokers award after they discovered at the finish Vince at booked in at an NTC early, earning two fails (47th O All 16th in class). Finally many thanks to Alwoodley Motor Club and especially Graham Whittaker on a very well organised and an enjoyable event.

1987 TROPHY POINTS

Following discussions it has been suggested that the various club trophies are won more by default "Oh! I seem to have won a trophy" rather than being competed for. Two suggestions to alter this have been made.

1. We should reprint the rules for each trophy so everyone is aware of what they are for and how they score points etc.

2. We should totally redesign the system in order to encourage competitors to contest for the trophies.

Suggestion 1. is simple and either with this magazine or next month we will do a supplement listing all the rules and regulations.

Suggestion 2. requires much more drastic action, so with one exception the championships will remain the same.

The one exception: FSB Rally Driver & Navigator

This will now be contested over the year on ten carefully selected events.

Jan	3 Swans	ANCC.Shell League
March	Northern Lights	Novice
April	Dunfab	ANCC
June	White Rose	Shell League
July	Lookout	Novice. Trackrod
Aug	St Wilfreds	ANCC
Sept	Costa	ANCC. Trackrod. Shell League
Oct	Olicana	Novice
Nov	Larkspeed	ANCC. Shell League

LOCKOUT RALLY

It has been decided to rename our annual novice rally and the organisers are offering a small prize for the best name - all suggestions to the editor please.

THE RACE - RESERVATION - STREET - CAR - FARA, LEEDS

For an event that showed no promise of ever happening it was all pulled together on Xmas Eve with various phone calls by our chairman and on the day by Peter Stanhope and his team of 3! This resulted in much last minute discussions between competitors on test diagrams (there weren't any!) and how the cones should be laid out. John Renny was too busy trying to get Ron Mackinnons special to run cleanly on its first outing, its owner duly arrived when it was fully sorted!!

A tremendous entry of twenty one (yes-really) was just reward for the stand-in organiser, Peter who was seen to be hiding behind suitably large cigars for most of the time whilst two tests were completed twice and a further two once each giving six in total before retiring to the nearest hostelry.

A brief resume of proceedings goes something like this:-

Late starting - who the hells organising this do?
Renny frightens himself (or he looks to have done!) while only on 3 cylinders!

Stanhope declares hes in charge!

Cones suddenly materialise.

Invisible Ian is scrutineer!

Tom Whittakers handbrake plays up in practice!

Sunny morning turns in to very cold rain/wind as event gets underway.

Ineson (whos he?) sets early pace.

Tierney collects a puncture in 'wives' Nova.

Mackinnon/Renny start a private duel for most bollards and brownest underpants (dirty faces are a close 2nd)

Becky Kemp goes about taking the ladies award.

Rain gets colder and Marshals get bluer in the face.

Ken Goodall regains old form to take his class.

Mackinnon gets competitive-then gets more pylons!

Malcolm Jaggers Fiesta wins class and Autotest Championship to boot.

John North 2nd behind Goodalls Escort.

Phil Sykes appears to have lost his Quip sponsorship -at least his sunbeams in' bare colour again!

Ian and Pauline Gurnett and family put in a welcome appearance.

Results announced and off to the pub!

RICHARD INESON

SHELL OILS LEAGUE

Well after six years of trying I have finally decided to give some one else the opportunity to have a go at winning the Shell Oils League for Trackrod. Over the years we have managed to field some very competitive fields and teams and the various events but always had a down fall some where along the line usually on the hill climb or on the PCT's neither suiting our membership and when all said and done you have to score well on all 10 rounds each year. At one time this last year after 5 rounds we were 2nd and not too far off the lead, things looked good. But then as usual disaster struck and we had a Shell Oils League Autotest the day after our Lookout Rally and although we normally fair well on Autotest we only had 2 entrys R. Ineson and Ken Goodall who went straight from the Rally only to retire with a holed radiator and we slipped to 4th where we eventually finished. Such is life.

Next year the new Captain is Ronnie Mac our Chairman so I hope everyone will give him as much, if not more support and that he can lead a victorious team through to the end when the rewards from Shell can be quite lucrative. Last year we won £100 for the club funds. I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone, who over the last six years has made the effort on behalf of the club on Shells Oils rounds. Thank you all. This years events has a predominant Rally flavour so lets get out there and win.
