RETROSPECTIVE

30 YEARS AGO - October 1976

Editor Lloyd gave us a brief outline of the forthcoming RAC Rally - our stage was to be Boltby - first car 11.15 pm!! Chief Marshal was Nigel Drayton.

Bob Chapman gave us his personal view of the Costa Di Plenti from the driving seat - he and Ronnie Moore were delighted to finish after early problems with malfunctioning spotlights. Shell League captain Ineson reported that we were only 180 points behind leaders York though we were in 3rd place.

Steve Lloyd also told us of the latest SPY44 adventures. He and driver Jackson took part on the Farnborough CC Triple C Championship Round where they finished 39th o/a after a small fire in close proximity to the petrol tank really put the wind up them and meant they missed several stages. This was followed by an outing on the Lakeland Stages - 39th o/a again but then the following day they went to Castle Donnington for the Vagabond Stages where they finished a resounding 3rd o/a!! - Such enthusiasm!

Good selection of photos this month - Sue Broadbelt (now Stuart-Brown) pulling a face at the markers on the PCT at Rose Farm; Phillip Cartwright in his Midget on the same event; Vince Girardier's Ascona on the Elcar Trophy Rally and Bob Chapman's Escort on the Full Sutton autotest.

A bumper issue this month with articles on the Highwayman Rally from Ken Goodall/Mike Tempest (where they finished 9th o/a and Bernard Fernyhough/John Bean 13th);The Duckhams Lookout Rally from John Westmoreland (CofC) and co-driver Alan Lilley (didn't tell us their results !); The Durham Every hope Rally from Andy Munnis (where he and driver Neil retired);and Chairman Mackinnon gave us the low-down on the North Humberside Crystal Stages Rally where he and Alan Powell finished 13th o/a (this was also a Shell League event and with only two crews finishing, we were 7th club on the day. The Dangerous Broyhers vented their spleens at Mr Angry's pop at the Birmingham Superprix last month - suffice to say they thought it rather good and suggested said Mr. Angry was being considerably short-sighted in just about all he said !!!!

Malcom Jagger had a moan about the poor turnout for his excellent Economy Run - only 5 crews took the trouble - scant reward for a fine, social/competitive event and his rant was well justified!

10 YEARS AGO - October 1996

An update on the trophy points showed 2 or 3 dominating performances. Pam Lukeman was leading the Ladies Award by over 100points and Richard Jackson was similarly placed in the Stage Rally Driver award. Steve Lloyd and Bernard Fernyhough were making a real battle of the Stage Navigator award, being only 14 points apart but 100 points ahead of the next contender!! All other awards were closely contended and were far from being resolved!

The only other item of any note in this very slim issue was the Retrospective which condensed the October 1997 issue to one page!!
