May 2012

Quarterly Magazine

For those of you that have paid your membership, you should have now received your 1st issue, I hope you enjoyed your reading. I was provided with a list which states whether you receive your Magazine by post or email, if you wish to change this please let me know and I will update the list accordingly.

I am now awaiting your contributions ready to go in the next issue, I must say I haven't received much yet!! Please can I have any write ups you have by the 9th June which will give me time to get the magazine published and distributed at the end of June.

Thanks Tina
